

Acme Global Technologies — Code of Conduct & Workplace Ethics

Policy Document ID: POL-HR-2026-04 | Effective Date: January 1, 2026

1. Equal Employment Opportunity & Anti-Harassment

Acme Global enforces a zero-tolerance policy against unlawful discrimination, harassment, and hostile workplace behavior based on race, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, or religion. Violations result in immediate disciplinary action up to and including termination.

2. Confidential Incident Reporting & Whistleblower Protection

Employees may report workplace concerns, safety hazards, ethical violations, or retaliation through several confidential channels:

- Direct reporting to their People Partner or Employee Relations Representative.
- 24/7 Anonymous Ethics Hotline at 1-800-555-ACME or online at ethics.acmeglobal.internal.
- Email reporting directly to ethics-hotline@acmeglobal.com.

Acme Global guarantees strict anti-retaliation protections. Any supervisor or manager retaliating against an employee who reports in good faith will face immediate termination.

3. Outside Employment & Secondary Business Activities

Employees may engage in outside consulting or freelance activities provided that such activities do not conflict with Acme Global business interests, occur outside company working hours, and do not utilize company equipment or confidential proprietary data. All outside engagements must be disclosed via the Annual Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form.
